

Activity 13: Apostrophes

In the following examples, put the apostrophe where you think it should go.

- » Try circling the thing that is being talked about.
- » The apostrophe always goes outside the circle.

The first one is done for you.

1. It was Tony's car.

This means, the car belonging to Tony, so Tony's car.

2. How is he going to get to his sisters wedding? (He has only one sister.)

3. It is time to go to Suzys house.

4. What is your babys name?

5. What are your babies names?

6. Pam wants to go to Jessicas party.

7. I'm going to the managers office. (There are several managers.)

8. Sahir is Robbies girlfriend.

9. We refer you to the companys policy. (There is only one company.)

10. My cars tyres were damaged.